

JEWES AND THE LAW

A 3-Part Adult Education Series

Famous Jewish Trials: Mendel Beilis, Leo Frank, the Rosenbergs, and the Holocaust on Trial, i.e., Deborah Lipstadt, with Dr. Irwin Wall, UCR History Professor Emeritus
Thursday, March 14, 7:00 PM

A Gangster's Daughter: Mystery writer Marcia Rosen will talk about growing up with gangsters. She writes about characters such as Zero the Bookie, a version of her dad; Doc, The Gimp, Johnny the Jig, and Fat Lawyer, some of her dad's associates
Sunday, March 31, 2:00 PM

A Jew in Prison: Evie Litwok, a formerly incarcerated Jewish woman, daughter of a Holocaust survivor, and founder and director of Witness to Mass Incarceration, talks about life behind bars and in solitary confinement, particularly for an older person
Sunday, April 7, 2:00 PM

Made possible by the Legacy Fund and the Rabbi's Discretionary Fund